Management Company: Fuchs Asset Management S.A.

Objectives and Investment Policy

The investment objective of the Fund is to track both the upward and downward evolution of the ITI Funds Russia-focused USD Eurobond Index (code Bloomberg: ITIEURBD Index) («Benchmark Index») based on 22 Eurobonds of Russian issuers chosen for market size, liquidity, credit rating and seniority of debt and bond characteristics.

ITI Funds Russia-focused USD Eurobond Index (the «Index») is market-price weighted fixed income index based on Eurobond securities of Russian issuers that met a set of selection criteria. The Index is based on the bonds that are denominated in USD, represent senior debt, fixed coupon bullet bonds, have amount outstanding US$ 500 mln or more, rated by S&P or Moody's at a one-step lower level than Russia's sovereign rating or above. The index assumes quarterly rebalancing. The Fund seeks to achieve its objective via investments in Eurobonds constituting the Index. Updated composition of the Fund holdings is available on itifunds-etf.com. In addition, the indicative net asset value is published on the Reuters and Bloomberg pages of the Fund, and might also be mentioned on the websites of the stock exchanges where the Fund is listed.

Invested financial instruments: Eurobonds of Russian issuers.

Reinvestment policy: Cash income is reinvested into index constituents at rebalancing date.

Net Asset Value: is daily calculated providing that the relevant stock exchanges are open for trading and orders can be covered.

Redemptions: Investors are able to redeem their shares on the primary market every valuation day before 13:00 CET and sell their shares on the secondary market at any time during trading hours of the Funds listing places.

Risk and Reward Profile

The indicator above illustrates the position of this Fund on a standard risk/reward category scale. The risk/reward category shown above is based on the historical performance of Fund's benchmark index and assets included in the Fund. The risk estimate may therefore not represent a reliable indicator of future risk, and may be subject to change over time. The lowest category does not mean risk free investments.

Due to a lack of sufficient historical data, the risk indicator incorporates simulated data from a benchmark portfolio. Risk Category 4 reflects low potential gains and/or losses for the portfolio. This is due to investments in bonds on the Russian market.

The risk/reward profile is a reasonably accurate reflection of the risk inherent in the Fund.

The indicator does not take into the account the following risks of investing in the Fund:

Concentration risk: To the extent that the Fund's investments are concentrated in a particular country, market, industry or asset class, the Fund may be susceptible to loss due to adverse occurrences affecting that country, market, industry or asset class.

Credit risk and interest rate risk: The Fund invests in bonds, cash or other money market instruments. There is a risk that the issuer may default. The likelihood of this happening will depend on the credit-worthiness of the issuer. The risk of default is usually greatest with bonds that are rated as sub-investment grade. An increase in interest rates may cause the value of fixed-income securities held by the Fund to decline. Bond prices and yields have an inverse relationship, when the price of a bond falls the yield rises.

Currency risk: The Fund invests in overseas markets. It can be affected by changes in exchange rates which may cause the value of your investment to decrease or increase.

Emerging market risk: A Fund which invests in emerging markets rather than more developed countries may encounter difficulties when buying and selling investments. Emerging markets are also more likely to experience political uncertainty and investments held in these countries may not have the same protection as those held in more developed countries.

Inflation risk: Inflation will, over time, reduce the spending power derived from your investments.

For more information on risks, please see the section entitled "Risk Factors" in the prospectus.
